

HVNS MEETING – 3/14/12

- Meeting called to order at 7:00 PM by Chuck Sharpe.
- Auction - detailed information on number of items and proceeds for the club were not available at the time these notes were published.
- Secretary/Treasurer – All dues have been paid for this year.
- Shirts – Ken reported that all shirts ordered have been delivered. A second order for shirts will be going in (at member expense). Please see Ken directly if interested.
- Library – Guenter reported that we have received the OK to set up a National Coin Week display from Highland. Volunteers will be needed 4/13/12 to help setup. The Hartland library will happen on Monday 4/16/12. Al reported that he will take care of the Milford library. “Cowries to Credit Cards” is the theme this year.
- Attendance awards presented by Heidi. Mark won a 1959 proof quarter while James Natzke won a 1989-S Congressional commemorative half dollar.
- Chuck thanked the members that worked the HVNS coin show on 3/31. A steady flow of people was mentioned along with five items in door prizes purchased from John Mason at good prices.
- We have a map of where those attending came from and it provided some names to work on for membership in HVNS.
- Chuck reported that were probably close to one thousand dollars in bourse fees for this show but a final accounting would come from Mike Bovio.
- Al introduced A. Ronald Sirna, Jr. as our speaker, who gave a presentation on the topic of Condor Tokens that was well received by the membership
- Next month’s speaker will be Ernie Nagy on the topic of Hard Times tokens.
- Dave Stiebe invited the membership to support his efforts as a new coin show promoter by attending a show in Rochester Hills from 9 am – 3pm Saturday 4/14.
- Meeting adjourned at 8:37 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,

David M. Engel
