MINUTES

With 16 members present and five members participating on Zoom, Acting Chair Al R. called the meeting to order.

Program

Ernie N. presented a fascinating talk on “Hard Times Tokens.” Such tokens were issued from 1833 to 1844. While there are three types (store cards, political tokens and satirical tokens), Ernie emphasized the satirical. These tokens generally mocked Andrew Jackson and his allies. Ernie’s talk was enhanced by anecdotes about duels which took place during the period.

Auction

Ken G. called the auction. The net amount to the Club was $14.75.

Finances and Membership

Glen R. reported that our bank balance is $6,365.53. We have 26 individual memberships and ten family memberships.

Summary of January 6, 2022 Board of Directors Meeting

Al R. summarized the results of the Board of Directors Meeting.

A discussion ensued regarding our proposed Programs for 2022. Outgoing Program Chair Ernie N. has already covered programs for January and February. After February, members will be asked to give talks entitled "My Most Interesting Coin." Each talk should last no more than five minutes. Al R. will provide sign-up sheets.

Likewise, each Board Member will be charged with the responsibility for one month's program. The Board Member may either make the presentation or secure a presenter.

Al R. has arranged an Appraisal Night at the Milford Public Library for April 20, 2022. The scheduled time is 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

National Coin Week

This year's theme is "Dynamic Design."

Attendance Prize Drawing

Gary F., John S. and Bill N. were winners of the attendance prizes.

Around the Room

Ken G. discussed his recent estate sale find.

Al R. reported that the PANS Show is moving to a new location, the Venetian Club. We will ask PANS to increase our share of the Show proceeds from 20% to one-third. If that is not agreeable, we will notify them of our withdrawal from the 2023 Show.

A discussion took place regarding the technical difficulties experienced at this meeting in combining the in-person meeting with the Zoom meeting. Jim M. will look into the purchase of a Bluetooth microphone to alleviate the audio issues that were experienced today.

The members in attendance voted to hold February's meeting "in person."

Al R. adjourned the meeting.
